Disclaimer: CoinFLEX is the trading name of LIQUIDITY TECHNOLOGIES LTD (IBC No. 208853), a limited company incorporated in the Seychelles whose registered office is at Global Gateway 8, Rue de la Perle, Providence, Mahé, Republic of Seychelles. Electronic trading in cryptocurrency futures is not regulated in the Seychelles and CoinFLEX does not hold any authorisation, licence or registration to provide the platform. Your trading activity is not supervised by any national regulatory or supervisory authority and any losses you incur will likely not be recoverable under any government compensation scheme.

Important Note: Cryptocurrency futures are intended for sophisticated investors and are complex investments which carry a high degree of risk. The information contained in this document is not, and should not be read as, advice or an offer or recommendation to buy or sell any asset. For more information, please refer to the Risk Statement found on www.coinflex.com. Trading in cryptocurrencies involves significant risk of loss. The value of cryptocurrencies, and therefore the value of futures linked to them, is extremely volatile. They are vulnerable to sharp changes in price due to unexpected events or changes in market sentiment. Cryptocurrency futures are leveraged products. Leverage multiplies your losses and potential profits, and can have a significant impact on fees. Due to the peer-to-peer nature of the CoinFLEX platform, you may be exposed to significant counterparty risk. Under extreme market circumstances, CoinFLEX could decide to partially or entirely close profit-making positions to be able to counteract the impact of loss-making positions, with losses being covered by profits made by traders on a pro rata basis.

Please ensure you fully understand the risks of trading in cryptocurrency futures and take care to manage your exposure. If you are in any doubt, please contact CoinFLEX at support@coinflex.com.
